AEF BRINGS LAW STUDENTS AND ATTORNEYS TOGETHER AT ITS 2008 SPEED NETWORKING RECEPTION HOSTED BY FINNEGAN

Washington, D.C. – The Asian Pacific American Bar Association Educational Fund (AEF) sponsored its annual speed networking reception on November 11, 2008, at the Washington, D.C. law offices of Finnegan, Henderson, Farabow, Garrett & Dunner, LLP. Over 80 law students and attorneys participated in the event, which provided a venue for law students to network and be mentored. AEF created the speed networking reception to help law students establish professional relationships within the Asian Pacific American legal community. During this year's reception, each law student had the opportunity to talk for eight minutes with six to eight attorneys in succession. To see photographs from the event, and to learn more about AEF in general, please visit AEF's website at www.aefdc.org.

AEF, a tax-exempt 501(c)(3) organization, is the charitable arm of the Asian Pacific American Bar Association of the Greater Washington, D.C. Area. Since 1993, AEF has awarded fellowships to law students who accept unpaid internships in the non-profit or public sector to provide critically needed services to the Asian Pacific American community and the Greater Washington, D.C. community-at-large. AEF funds these fellowships primarily through its Annual Benefit Dinner, which has become a marquee event in the community with over 300 attendees annually.
